

MOVEMENT STARTED TO RAISE MEMORIAL FOR OUR HEROES

ALL LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS INVITED TO CO-OPERATE

The Home Guards have started a movement which will insure a proper reception home to our boys who return and the erection in Narberth of a memorial in memory of the Narberth men who gave their lives in the great world war of 1914-18.

The preliminary plans as arranged by Captain Harry Hartley, Postmaster Haws, H. C. Gara and Hon. Fletcher W. Stites and approved by the officers and members of the Home Guard are briefly as follows: A "Thank" Box will soon be delivered to each home in Narberth by members of the Home Guard. This box will be suitably inscribed and is to receive the contributions of the family. It is requested that the little "Thank" Box be kept in a prominent place where all will see it, including visitors who may wish to contribute to the fund. By this method every man, woman and child will have an opportunity to give something to a permanent memorial to our heroic dead. They will have the privilege of showing their thanks to the boys who went forth to war to perpetuate democracy and to stamp out autocracy, a mission they have gloriously accomplished, and in doing so have earned our thanks and gratitude to a degree in which it will be hard for us to do them sufficient honor. Let us think seriously of the privilege given us to honor these boys who have sacrificed so much for us. Let us not forget those who gave their young lives that this and other countries might not come under the iron heel of despotism. Let us try to be worthy of the sacrifice they have made and show our gratitude without stint. The "Thank" Boxes will be left in the homes for about six weeks, or until shortly after the New Year, when they will be collected by Home Guards in uniform. The funds will be turned over to Postmaster Edward S. Haws, treasurer.

In the meantime a General Committee will be formed consisting of one member from each local organization to co-operate with the Committee of the Home Guards, which will consist of the officers of that organization. The General Committee will have to decide the kind of memorial, the cost, where to be located, and arrange for any further necessary funds.

RED CROSS

Workers Needed to Make Garments for Refugees—Soldiers' Clothes to Be Repaired.

Narberth's Surgical Dressing Department Closes with Remarkable Record.

No more surgical dressings will be required by the Red Cross. Narberth went over the top by completing 58,637 large dressings and 3,150 muslin bags since July 1, 1917. 2,800 front-line packets, each packet containing 15 dressings, were completed in the workroom since April 2, 1918, and the group of Fairview workers, who met at the home and under the direction of Mrs. Charles W. Young, made 2,800 muslin bags in the same time. This group of faithful workers completed over 4,000 bags and 1,000 muslin bandages.

There should be no falling off in workers because this department is closed. Those who have so diligently worked to make this fine record should turn their attention to the garment making department.

The Red Cross Room will be open every Monday night and all day Tuesday and Wednesday, and workers are needed more than ever either to run the machines or do simple hand sewing.

The desperate condition of the people in the war-ridden countries of Europe requires the Red Cross to supply them with clothing.

Our soldiers and nurses overseas will need all sorts of warm clothing and knitted articles.

The reclamation department has garments and socks to be mended and workers are needed to take the work home.

Narberth has made such a wonderful record it is to be hoped that all the war workers will continue to come to the Red Cross Room and the peace work will keep up Narberth's good reputation.

Mr. William Jefferies has returned to camp after an eight-day furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Laird and family have gone to New York for the week end.

Miss Dorothy Mulford, formerly of Narberth, was visiting several of her friends in town last week.

Welcome news! Mrs. Odell will give one of her famous oyster suppers at the Y. M. C. A. on Thursday evening, December 12th. Hold that date!!

Don't forget the date, December 10th 3 P. M., Y. M. C. A. Dr. Elise Whitlock Rose, of the Little House of Pantaleon, will speak to women of Narberth.

Home Bake and Practical Xmas Gifts Sale on Saturday, December 7th, all day, by the Woman's Club of Narberth. Watch for posters as to exact location. Annual Question: What shall I give them this year? Save yourself needless worry and give War Savings Stamps.

An opportunity presents itself to buy inexpensive practical Xmas gifts and home-made goodies at the sale scheduled for Saturday, December 7th. Watch the posters.

On Saturday evening, December 28th, members of the Sophomore Class will give an amusing play called "The Oxford Affair." The proceeds are to be for Junior Red Cross work.

The new 1919 series of War Stamps will be blue instead of green. The same Thrift Stamps and Cards will continue to be used and exchanged for $5.00 War Stamps by the method now in use. The 1919 Series will mature in 1924.

The Y. M. C. A. Educational Committee is planning a series of illustrated lectures on "America at War" to start in the near future. The pictures are furnished by the Government and are official photographs. Watch for further announcements.

Mrs. A. Thornton Grugan, of Hampden avenue, entertained the following at tea Tuesday afternoon: Mrs. George Twigg, Mrs. A. G. Stephenson, Mrs. Robert Patterson, Mrs. W. Henderson, Mrs. W. Smith, Mrs. Lawrence Warnick, and a few others.

Miss Ethelmae Fallon, who is now living in Overbrook, gave an informal dance at her home last Saturday evening. Those who attended from Narberth were: Miss Mildred Harris, Miss Margaret Mayes, Miss Augusta Witherow and Miss Jane Laird, Mr. Charles McCarter, Mr. William Black and Mr. William Harris.

Miss Augusta Witherow is entertaining at dancing this evening in honor of Miss Miriam Kelly, who is spending the Thanksgiving holidays with her. Among the guests will be: Misses Mildred Harris, Ethelmae Fallon, Margaret Mayes, Nancy Shaffer, Miriam Kelly, and Messrs. Leon Hilditch, Edward Erdle, Gelhar, George Wilford, Howard Clarey, Milton Walker, and William Black.

What about that 300 membership goal of the Y. M. C. A.? Why it's a way "over the top"! And a month in advance at that! Some people might think 500 a visionary goal. If you think that a good figure to set for the end of 1919, just call Narberth 694-W and tell Mr. Bowen that it sounds good to you and that you will do your part as a booster.

In "Shoulder Arms," Charlie Chaplin's latest offering to be shown at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore, on Wednesday and Thursday, the famous comedian supplies enough energy and nerve in this three-act farce to win the admiration of his millions of friends. In addition to "Shoulder Arms" a special feature is included each day, namely, Shirley Mason in "Cy Whittaker's Ward" on Wednesday, and Tom Moore in "Brown of Harvard" on Thursday.

Betty Geyler, of 215 Price avenue, is one of the happiest little girls in Narberth. Last spring when she was only five years old, she knit a scarf and sweater which were sent to France by the Navy Auxiliary. They attached her name and age, and the sailor who received them has just sent her a letter of thanks, telling her how comfortable they are on the cold night watches. Betty entered the Narberth school this fall and was one of the knitters at the Patriotic Fete.

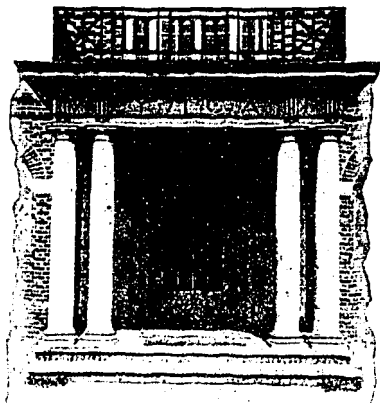

According to Government regulations, we have been forced to remove a number of names from our subscription lists, owing to failure of these subscribers to see that their subscription was paid up to date. As soon as payments are received we will be pleased to replace these few delinquents back on the list so that they will receive Our Town regularly every Saturday morning. All delinquent bills that are not paid within a reasonable time will be placed in other hands for collection.

The Narberth Fire Company held their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening, with President Kreamer in the chair. The matter of securing new members was brought before the meeting and it was decided to get into personal touch with all the men of the town who do not already belong to the Company, and it is hoped that many new members will be secured. It is also hoped that many of the residents of Merion and Wynnewood will also get into line, as they depend largely upon our Fire Company for protection of their property in case of fire.

Narberth has very good prospects of selling its quota of War Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps by the end of December. We wish every Main Line town and every other community in the country was in the same position, but unfortunately they are not. We confidently expect to be one of the communities which will have the distinction of selling our quota. Only about six weeks remain to win the goal. Every other effort during the war has been carried over in Narberth with a whoop; shall we fall down in this most excellent help to our country and our boys, it being as well the best paying investment of any offered by the Government. Stop at the Post Office and buy War Stamps—plenty on hand to sell for the completion of our quota.

George W. Braden Will Tell of His Experiences with the Italian Army

Every Man and Woman in Narberth Is Invited to Hear Mr. Braden Address the Annual Meeting of the Y. M. C. A.

Next Monday at 8 P. M., in our Narberth Y. M. C. A., the opportunity of hearing Mr. Braden will be extended to all residents of our town. Mr. Braden, although a resident of Narberth, has been through such organizations as the Poor Richard and Advertising Clubs of Philadelphia, while wo of his home town have not been privileged to hear his wonderful story of the Y. M. C. A. with the Italian Army. Director Stites to Preside.

Mr. Fletcher W. Stites, one of the Y. M. C. A. Directors, will preside at this meeting and will have an interesting report to give, representing the Directors, of the increase in the activities during the past months and better still of prospective plans for a greater community service to all residents of Narberth, especially through a reorganization of the Boys' Division.

Miss Cross to Lead a Liberty Sing. The singing teacher of our schools, Miss Cross, has willingly consented to conduct a short Liberty Sing as a part of the program of the evening. This is another opportunity. The singing of the Narberth Schools on different occasions has demonstrated her leadership and we all will count it a privilege to take part in a sing under such a leader. Let us start now and make congregational singing a habit that we will never lose but constantly strive to improve, not only in our churches, but on all occasions that we gather for any purpose in our town.

The Boy Scouts of Delaware and Montgomery Counties were not satisfied to remain idle, so that when the great world war was declared at an end they began to look around for other things to do to be of service to the Government as well as to the community, and so discovered an enemy that had entered in our very midst in the form of the Tent Caterpillar.

These pests fasten themselves upon the trees and cause thousands of dollars' worth of damage in the spring. Going along the roads in the counties one can see the trees full of large fluffy nests which these pests construct.

Realizing the danger this will mean to the community, Mr. Winthrop Sargent, President of the Delaware and Montgomery Scouts, has declared war upon the enemy. The attack will start Saturday morning, December 7th, and continue all day.

Two thousand Scouts will respond to his call to arms, their weapons being kerosene torches, made of old tin cans or saturated rags on the end of long bamboo poles. The Scouts will burn all the nests they can find. Each troop of Scouts will be in charge of an adult Scoutmaster who will see that the work is properly done and that special precautions are taken to prevent fires.

The people in Delaware and Montgomery Counties can help considerably in this work if they will write the Scoutmaster in their town informing him of the places where the pests are.

If the Scoutmaster is not located in your town, send the information to Boy Scout Headquarters, 1319 Real Estate Trust Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

RAIN FAKERS.

At one period of the recent war there was a considerable controversy in England as to whether the tremendous firing of guns in Flanders and the northern section of France did not bring about the abundant rainfall that had then been experienced in the southeastern part of England.

Perhaps it was this controversy that stirred a rain faker to get busy last February in California. He influenced commercial bodies of small cities and contracted for $1,000 for every inch of rain fall in April, five inches being the limit. The faker instituted a great publicity campaign. Sulphuric acid was bought, and citizens liberated hydrogen gas by pouring the diluted acid on zinc. Hundreds of dollars were spent without any result.

Rain fakers disregard physical laws and exercise psychological methods that sound plausible enough to those who are captivated by a good talker and accept assertions as if they were positive facts.

Years ago Paris, Texas, had an interesting and diverting time with one of these fakers. Clouds were shot at, peppered for dear life in order that the concussion would cause the moisture in the clouds to fall as rain drops.

In the dry fall of 1915 one of these rain fakers actually obtained a contract from the City Council of San Diego for $10,000 to produce rain in January. The weather had been exceedingly dry, otherwise who would have listened to his plausibilities?

"No rain, no pay," is an attractive slogan and has caused a good many hands to reach for their pocket books, to pay for the fakers' "expenses in advance."

Rain is the most capricious of all the elements to forecast, and even the most able of meteorologists will frequently forecast it wrong.

Naturally if a rain faker will keep on keeping at it rain will fall some time or other and he will promptly claim that it was the result of his efforts.

A POETICAL SCRUB GIVES THE CUB A RUB

To the Editor of Our Town.

May I ask if your contributor Cub is the majority stockholder, that you accord him such license in your otherwise respectable columns? Most vehemently do I protest against his holding up to ridicule and scorn the leading citizens of our town. Even our worthy constable does not escape the gall scattered by his ruthless pen! I warn him that he may expect retaliation in kind, if not action at law.

He now makes our postmaster the target of his gibes and barbed lampoons, presuming upon the dignity of that gentleman's official position as a member of the Administration, knowing that his victim would not stoop to wrangle with him; knowing also that our postmaster loves peace—so loves it that he officially proclaimed the end of the war four days before our boys had finished hammering [deleted by the censor] out of the Huns. But I am not too proud to fight, and I will fight for my friend Haws to the last drop of ink.

Cub finds fault with the very hinges of the doors of the new post office. He insists that he be allowed to enter by the right-hand door, proving himself utterly lacking in imagination as well as in muscular development. If he had the former he could see the advertising value of the innovation; if he had the latter he would put on a football suit and take his chance in the scrimmage. The town has not grown a great deal since the new Federal Building was opened, yet I have seen denser throngs than before, and come in contact with six times as many corns and sharp elbows. It gives us a decidedly metropolitan aspect.

I meant to conclude with a quotation, but failing to find one sufficiently cutting, write this:

There's an irresponsible Cub,
A port editorial sub,

To whom I would say
You are getting too gay

When you hint the Postmaster's a dub.

I don't like that; it's bad poetry and it lacks punch. I wish to hand this Cub something that will make him feel sorry for himself. This may be better:

Now why does the Cub get so sore
On the hang of that postoffice door?

The jam, don't you see,
Makes our town seem to be
A much bigger burg than before.

That's no better; it's worse. I want something carrying a rebuke, yet maintaining a proper dignity. Let's try it again:

The Cub is a comical cuss!

For why does he make such a fuss?

If he hits the wrong trail
Going in for his mail,
The bump might result in a buss!

That will not do at all; instead of a reprimand I've given him a tip. Once more:

The Cub is a ninecompoop, net;
For why should he ever forget,
The left door is right
For entrance or flight—

After all, broken ribs can be set!
ALOYSIUS SCRUB.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The War Industries Board has sent notice to the Board of Constructions and Materials of Pennsylvania, which in turn advises the Local Board of Montgomery County, that rulings heretofore in force are modified to the extent that all buildings and repairs purely agricultural, as well as all other kinds of construction and improvement not in excess of ten thousand dollars, may proceed without permit of any kind, and that dealers and material men may supply material in such cases without affidavit or permit to the applicant.

In new construction exceeding in cost ten thousand dollars, permits will be required until at least articles of peace are signed.

The public is asked to co-operate with the Government in bringing civilian construction work back to normal. The gradual discontinuance of war activities will help release materials and men for civilian construction, and help produce normal conditions. Co-operate with this Board and in that way it can best serve you and help restore business and prosperity throughout our county.

Church Notes.

The program of the 27th anniversary of the Bible School given last Thursday evening was of the highest order. The reports of the Secretary and Treasurer showed the year to be one of the best in the history of the school.

The work of the B. Y. P. U. is increasing in interest and numbers each week. The membership of the Union now numbers fifty-three. A permanent fund has been established, sufficient to send one of our young people to Silver Bay on beautiful Lake George each season. This is to be a living memorial by one of the advisory members to his deceased wife.

Dr. Killian gave a wonderful service last Sunday evening, setting forth the great opportunities for practical Christianity through the Colporters automobile, the Gospel ships and the Chapel Cars. Those not present missed a great service, but another opportunity is coming this Sunday evening, when a number of Institute girls will be present and conduct the service. They will both sing and speak.

The Annual Donation and Reception Day will be on Thursday, December 5th, at the Institute. All members and friends are invited to be present at the Institute, 1425 Snyder avenue. An unusual entertainment will be given by the students in the evening.

The public is cordially invited to join with us in our worship.

Your pledge for the War Chest Fund is due and payable to the Treasurer, Chas. V. Noel, or the Merion Title and Trust Company, at Narberth.

If you pay by check, make checks payable to the War Chest Fund, or mail direct to Chas. V. Noel, Treasurer.

Important News from Kentucky

Now that the greatest war in all history has been brought to a glorious close the question naturally arises as to what effect peace will have upon securities in general, and particularly what stocks will be favorably influenced by the rapidly changing conditions.

BOSTON KENTUCKY OIL COMPANY

with its immense acreage in Kentucky, comprising 1350 acres in Rowan County, and 960 acres in Clay County—all bought and paid for—and all carefully selected and potentially productive territory presents

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR YOU

to acquire an interest in proportion to your investment which should return you handsome profits and in a Company where your interest carries what we believe to be a safe investment as well as possessing remarkable speculative possibilities. Regarding the oil situation after the war, it should be understood that there is, at present per day and 3,000 barrels of gasoline per day, as oil and gasoline are being used in these amounts in excess of the present production and manufacture. It is true that the oil and gasoline now utilized in war machines will not be required for such purposes after the close of the war, although there is the necessity for motor transports from France in bringing the armies, supplies and equipment to points of shipment to home countries. Furthermore, the navy is likely to be continued at its full strength in ships and men for perhaps two years after peace is signed. The building of merchant ships, however, will not cease with the signing of peace. The present tonnage of merchant ships is less than it was in 1914. Where one ship is needed now,

A DEPLETION OF 100,000 BARRELS OF OIL

THREE WILL SOON BE NEEDED

to meet the needs of the world's commerce, in peace. Practically all of the new ships built since the beginning of the war are oil burning, and it is stated by the big, reliable business men engaged in the oil industry, that the requirements of the world's markets will mean the need of oil and its products in constantly increasing amounts. With reference to the developments in Kentucky, we are pleased to say that at the close of October, 580 wells were in process of drilling, as against 548 at the end of September. During the month of October, 219 new commercial oil wells and 14 new gas wells were successfully completed, making an additional daily average production of 5,653 barrels of crude petroleum. In order that you may take advantage of the present offer of BOSTON-KENTUCKY OIL COMPANY treasury shares at FIFTEEN CENTS per share, it will be necessary that your order or reservation be sent us promptly, as this allotment is moving rapidly and the next allotment will be offered at TWENTY CENTS per share. Bear in mind that our acreage is unusually large and our capitalization unusually small. Address all communications to

CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER

To the Editor of Our Town:

According to Sam Gompers, Labor bore the brunt of the war. Evidently Sam doesn't read the papers or he might have suspected that the Army and Navy boys had something to do with recent events. Labor was making a barrel of money while many of our lads were giving their lives and blood for $30.00 per. Labor had a feast and a sinucure, if that's what Sam means by "bearing the brunt." He might just as well have said that those girls who parade the streets in natty blue uniforms—the greater part of whom were apparently of no earthly use and whose principal function seemed to be that of posing for the camera—really had something to do with the war.

Whether you consider our parades good, bad or indifferent, you must be favorably impressed with one feature, namely, the horsemanship of our local police force, Dan Hill. No cavalry general ever looked more beautiful, imposing or awe inspiring than Narberth's Guardian of the Peace when mounted on his borrowed coal black charger. As a leader of parades, Narberth's Own is a winner.

Narberth is a mighty small spot on the map of Pennsylvania, but in educational circles she's a big splash, as is evidenced by the fact that the President of our School Board is a member of the Executive Committee of the State Educational Association. Do you suppose Narberth would be honored in this way if the leaders of education in Pennsylvania—the men who are in a position to know what's what as far as schools are concerned—if they didn't consider Narberth's school among the very best in the State?

Wonder what Louis Ligrest is going to do with that earload of peach pits, prune pits, olive pits, etc., which he has collected? We ought to call his place Pittsburgh. He has enough pits to start several orchards. There is plenty of vacant land in Narbrook Park. How about having our own home grown peaches, prunes and olives?

There's some grumbling because the Street Commissioner has refused to go into our cellars and carry out the ashes. Aside from the fact that the slight exertion of carrying the cans to the sidewalk doesn't hurt anybody, I can't see that a line of ash cans along the curb lends anything to the beauty scheme of our noble thoroughfares, especially if the Commissioner is away on a fishing trip and the ashes are not collected on time. However, now that the war is over, perhaps the labor problem will be over and we can look forward to the time when the Borough's minions will enter our cellars and shake down the furnace, sift the ashes and clean up generally, but you know and I know that the man that expects the most is the first one to kick about the tax rate. CUB.

WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB

Dr. Elise Whitlock Rose, of the Little House of Saint Pantaleon, will be heard in Narberth Tuesday, December 10th, at 3 P. M. in the Y. M. C. A., under the auspices of the Woman's Club of Narberth.

On the day that war was declared the founder of this little house was bound for Strasbourg, and shortly heard the cries of suffering that echoed throughout the world—the cries of hurt children, of crazed women, of wounded on the battlefield, the victims of uncivilized warfare—and realized that she must immediately do all in her power to help in this great struggle.

Dr. Rose has been right in the midst of the suffering in France and can tell you interesting stories of the little hospitals that have sprung up all over France—of the wonderful opportunities to aid in the reclamation work of these splendid people at this time.

Each member is urged to keep this date open and to bring their friends and listen to one of the most interesting and earnest speakers on this topic, and of the splendid way humanity has been served through the will and effort of Dr. Rose and her associates.

Remember Tuesday, December 10th, at 3 P. M., Y. M. C. A. Building.

Wire's Long Stretch.

While S. E. Wharton of Boston was traveling in Switzerland his attention was called to the longest unsupported telegraph wire he had ever seen. It crosses in one span the Lake of Wallenstadt, being fastened to two iron towers which are almost 8,000 feet apart. The line is made of steel and that section of it closest to the lake is more than 100 feet above the surface of the water.

Above, Not Against.

We may not be able to dissipate the forces which war against us, but we can strengthen the forces which range themselves for us. We may not be able to change the conditions in which we must live, but we can train ourselves to be more brave and patient in their endurance; to keep our spirits above them, instead of in constant irritation against them.

Kauri Gum.

The kauri gum district of New Zealand covers an area of approximately 914,000 acres. From kauri gum (named after the kauri pine) is made the high-grade varnishes used for furniture and for automobiles. Since the discovery of the gum by an American sea captain in 1853, New Zealand has produced kauri to the value of $92,000,000.

Controlling the Winds.

Controlling the winds is not yet an aviation triumph. If an aircraft starts from one point to another due east, and there is a wind blowing of 15 miles an hour northeast, that will clearly have to be taken into consideration, and the compass course altered (before ascending), according to the total distance of the journey.

Losses by Poisonous Weeds.

The loss of cattle and sheep due to poisonous weeds is very great. On the United States national forest ranges alone the loss in 1916 amounted to 6,648 cattle and 16,273 sheep, besides a number of horses, goats and other animals.

Charm of a Rabbit Foot.

An explanation of the marvelous and mysterious properties of the rabbit foot as a good luck piece is to be found in the fact that witchcraft regarded the rabbit as a particularly mystical animal. The favorite disguise of the witches of old was to take the form of a rabbit—a close second was the cat—and records again and again show convictions and executions of women for the fearful crime of changing themselves into rabbits. A rabbit foot was a potent charm against the evil spells of the witch-rabbit.

Unkindness Often Bad Habit.

Unkindness is more a loose, indifferent habit than intentional neglect, disrespect, or downright meanness. Words and deeds are parented by thoughts; and it is so easy to fall into slothful, indifferent thinking that, oftentimes unthinkingly, we neglect, speak carelessly to, or treat unconcernedly those toward whom we ought to act with most consideration and deference. G. E. W., in Great Thoughts.

Chinese Don't Like Cheese.

Statisticians have figured out that England eats the larger part of Europe's output of cheese. Europe's output amounts to 340,000,000 kilograms. England alone consumes 180,000,000 kilograms of this amount. Next comes Holland, which takes 56,000,000; Switzerland takes 43,000,000; France, 31,000,000, and Germany 20,000,000 kilograms. The only people on earth who eat no cheese are the Chinese.

Color Blind.

One man in England in every sixty is partially or wholly color blind, so at least the tests for the English mercantile marine seem to show. A noted professor maintains that the proportion is even larger. Candidates, after passing all the usual tests relied upon by the navy and the railway companies, have been found to be defective by his lantern.

Contrary Mineral.

Coal is a contrary critter. Instead of expanding generously, like water, in freezing weather, it contracts rapidly. The sensitive coal pile shrinks at the first touch of winter and, with the mercury at zero, when every respectable commodity is frozen stiff, the costly coal pile melts away like Simple Simon's snowball before the fire.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

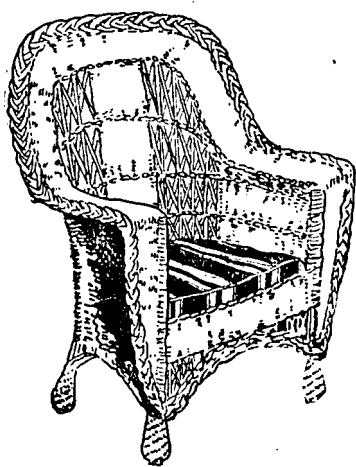

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
